Since the initial article was written on Shy Bladder, many people have. I have heard from men and women, soldiers, mothers, fathers and, in fact, people from every walk of life. People can hear me and know what I am doing in the bathroom.