Critical study and analysis of artistic and cultural production. Visual Culture MA in Visual Culture. The M.A. in Visual Culture offers graduate students the opportunity for study and research in the field of visual culture.

VCG is an international, freely accessed online journal available at emitto.net/visualculturegender. The journal's aim is to promote new models of inquiry and new narratives. It provides a forum for critical approaches to the production and analysis of cultural objects. Features essays and art.